

The Heart of America Foundation®

Book List

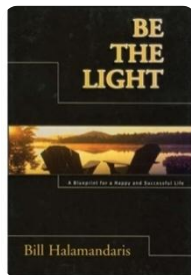

Love and Hate: The Story of Henri Landwirth

Written by Bill Halamandaris, Love and Hate documents the personal story of Henri Landwirth, who survived five concentration camps and went on to a successful fifty year career in the hotel business, establishing six philanthropic organizations along the way.

His Name Is Today

His Name Is Today by Bill Halamandaris examines the life and good works of Bob Macauley, founder of AmeriCares.

Be The Light

Often we find inspiration in the words of others. Be the Light: A Blueprint for a Happy and Successful Life by Bill Halamandaris is a road map for forging a life full of meaning and bolsters readers with a sense of empowerment.

The Heart of America: Ten Core Values That Make Our Country Great

The Heart of America: Ten Core Values That Make Our Country Great, written by Bill Halamandaris, is available now through the Heart of America Foundation®. Proceeds from sales of the book benefit the Heart of America Foundation® and its youth programs.

“As this book demonstrates, the greatness of America is a reflection of the greatness of our people. There is something each of us can do to make the world a better place.” – Christopher Reeve

“By personalizing the ten core values with moving stories of Americans both known and obscure, Bill provides a very human face for the ideas he presents. The Heart of America instructs readers as it moves them, and inspires them as it educates them.” – Marcia Bullard, President and CEO (RET) of USA WEEKEND Magazine

This book is an inspirational addition to any library, and also makes a great gift!